

County Line Blues

Pittsburgh is a commuter town we drive our cars each day Pittsburgher's rarely ride the bus Mass Transit seems passe so they dig a useless tunnel spend a half a billion bucks then Danny says he needs more cash so its the taxpayer he _ _ _ _ _ (chorus)

Onarrato ought'a not'a make me pay more for my drinks young people leave our city our population shrinks Those nasty politicians will tax you every time so if you want an cheap drink head for the county line

County transit books show red ink been losing cash for years and Danny O's solution Is just to charge us more for beers
The CEO pads his pockets with pensions perks and such but I'll be paying more to drink Danny O' don't care that much

Dan says screw the Restaurant workers he wants property taxes low what happened to that Casino Cash? it was the answer to our woes Dan bring us a real solution that's what we pay you for or round about election time we be showing you to the door
